THE 1931 CROWS' NEST PASS MUSICAL FESTIVAL

The festival committee has been busy of late getting the programme in line for the 1931 festival, which takes place during Easter week. This programme will compare favorably with previous festivals. The adjudicators will be Mr. Thomas Jenkins, Welsh musical bachelor, of Calgary; and Mr. Grigori Garbovitzy, conductor of the Calgary Symphony Orchestra.

Mr. Jenkins was late pupil of Sir Walford Davies, organist of Chapel Royal, Windsor, England, and is present organist of St. Stephen's church and teacher of piano, organ and theory at Calgary. He is a graduate of the University of Wales and took his degree of B.M. in 1925 at the age of 24. He was organist of one of the largest Methodist churches in Wales till September of 1929, when he received an invitation from the members of the vestry of St. Stephen's church to come and take charge of the music in that church. In January of this year, he was invited to be conductor of the Calgary Women's Musical Club choir and at the Alberta Musical Festival this year was awarded the gold medal in the open competition class.

Grigori Garbovitzy was born in the little town of Siwash on the island of Krim in the Black Sea. At a very early age he showed his natural love for music by picking out tunes on a toy harmonica. When nine years of age, he began to study violin and soon won for himself a government scholarship which enabled him to continue his studies for several years. After ten years study in various places, he went to Petrograd, where he entered the conservatoire and studied for a time under Leguey, and later under Leopold Auer, who personally selected him from a group of students as the most promising among them.

Among his fellow-students while under Auer was Kathleen Parlow, who on her last visit to Calgary, the city of her birth, was surprised to find him among her many friends here, and spoke in high appreciation of his musicianship and work as a teacher.

From Petrograd Mr. Garbovitzy graduated as laureate—the highest honor obtainable in the conservatoire. During the war he was attached to the musical section of the Russian army, and after the Russian revolution he settled in Restov, where he was conductor in the symphony orchestra for two years.

From Restov, Mr. Garbovitzy went to Berlin where he had the exceptional honor, in 1922 and 1923, of being three times a guest conductor of Berlin symphony orchestra, also being asked to sign his name in what is known as the Golden Book, an honor extended only to the most outstanding conductors in the world.

Mr. Garbovitzy has also played under such famous conductors as Mr. Richter, Nikisch, Safonoff, and others, thus gaining experience which, together with his own natural ability has made him a master of his art.

Mr. Garbovitzy's remarkable knowledge of orchestration is due in a large measure to his association with the renowned Russian composer, Glazunov, with whom he studied for over three years.

Mr. Garbovitzy has as a teacher performed wonderful work during his three years stay in Calgary, his pupils winning almost all the available medals and awards in the Alberta Musical Festival and was highly successful in the examinations. His artist students have also been heard in exceptionally brilliant recital work.

The next annual meeting of this district of the Masonic Order will be held at Cowley.

ANOTHER PASS PIONEER PASSES ON

In the death of Mr. Giuseppe Fabro, which occurred in the early hours of Sunday, another of the faithful pioneers of the Crows' Nest Pass district passed on to his reward.

Mr. Fabro came from Italy in the early part of the year 1908, taking up residence at Lillo, a mining town existing at that time some six miles north of Frank, Alberta, where he opened a bakery. For years he supplied bakery products to the various towns of this district until the town was abandoned early in 1913. In 1914 he moved with his family to Blairmore, where he secured and followed a position with the West Canadian Collieries Limited until quite recently, when through failing health he was obliged to retire.

He is survived by his wife, four sons: Alphonse and Bruno, of Kimberley, and Cryus and Milo, of Blairmore; and one daughter, Fannie, also at home.

The remains were laid to rest on Tuesday forenoon, following Holy Mass at St. Anne's Catholic church. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a very large concourse of Pass citizens, including the members of the district Italian Society, with the formation of which Mr. Fabro was largely interested. Mr. Fabro was slightly over sixty-eight years of age.

Floral and other tributes of respect and sympathy included the following: Mass Cards—The Family, The Altar Boys, Junior C.W.L., Senior C.W.L., Mr. and Mrs. R. Green, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Congdon, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gillis, Mrs. G. A. Passmore, Mrs. Dutil and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. P. Aschacher, Mr. and Mrs. R. Jamieson, Miss Kathleen Tompkins, Miss Millie Pondileck, Miss Lydia Brunetto, Miss Inez Brunetto, Miss M. J. Coyne.

Our National Parks

On May 9th of this present year, a Bill to be known as the National Parks Act passed the House of Commons and was shortly afterwards ratified by the Senate and signed by the Governor General.

This marked the beginning of a new era for the National Parks of Canada. They have now reached that state of importance in the administrative eye which entitles them to a separate Act. Formerly they were simply an afterthought administered under the Dominion Forest Reserve and Parks Act. No longer can they apply be compared with the house which was built upon the sand. The new National Parks Act is the rock upon which will be built a park system of which Canadians for all time will be justly proud, a system which will endure, a system having the stability of a mountain. No longer will the parks boundaries and policy of administration fluctuate with the rise and fall of the various political parties in power at Ottawa, because they can never again be made the political policy of any party, but are the policy, property and pride of each and every individual Canadian in this broad Dominion.

By the former Act all matters affecting parks were under the direct control of the Minister of the Interior through the Parks Branch, and an order-in-council could without the consent or even the knowledge of Parliament establish new parks, relinquish all or part of the present parks, sell or lease any water power, timber, berth, mining claim, or other commercial concession in the boundaries of any park.

By the new Act, thirty days' notice of any such matter affecting the parks must be published in the Canada Gazette, and then the matter takes the form of a private bill and may be thoroughly discussed by the people's representatives in Parliament before becoming law. Surely a reasonable way of dealing with park areas which belong not to any individual community or province but to the people of Canada as a nation.

It is well that such protection has been thrown around our great and expanding system of National Parks, because as population increases and the country becomes more and more industrialized, efforts to secure portions of National Parks areas for purposes of commercial exploitation become more numerous and harder to resist. Yet they must be resisted if the beauty, and therefore the value, of our National Parks is not to be destroyed.

As water is the life of all landscape pictures, so lakes, waterfalls and rivers are often, and generally, the chief attraction in a National Park. Destroy their natural beauty, and the park itself is largely destroyed. Nevertheless water-power companies become insistent upon securing rights to utilize these water powers for hydro-electric purposes. Already a large area has been taken out of Banff National Park, the Spray Lakes area, for hydro development, and now the hydro interests demand the famous Lake Minnewanka district in the same park.

Once embark on a recognized policy of alienating water-powers in our National Parks for commercial purposes and a precedent is established which will be cited by other interests. Our National Parks are rich in forests. With the waters and mountains they constitute the beauty of the parks; without them there would be little or no water. But the lumbering interests look upon them with envious eyes, and if the water-powers are to be exploited by the hydro companies, why not the forests by the lumbering interests? So, too, some of the National Parks are believed to be rich in minerals, but what would become of these parks if unsightly mining camps, with their piles of refuse, old derricks, ugly mine buildings, and all that is inseparable from mining camps and towns were allowed to spring up within their borders?

But if the door is opened to commercial exploitation in one direction, it will be well-nigh impossible to stop it in other directions.

The water-powers, the forests and the minerals within our National Parks undoubtedly have a commercial value, but so, too, have the Parks themselves in their natural state of beauty. Commercial exploitation of the forests would in a few years lessen and in time destroy their value. Cutting of the trees would lower and ultimately destroy the lakes, rivers and waterfalls. Mining operations in time would exhaust the minerals. Commercial inroads in the National Parks would mean a gradual depreciation in values. But retention of our National Parks in all their natural beauty will add to their commercial value to Canada as a resource which will attract ever increasing numbers of tourists from all parts of the world while maintaining for Canadians of future generations the delights and benefits of great national playgrounds, places of inspiration, and of health-giving happiness.

It is well, therefore, that the new National Parks Act has become the law of Canada. In this Dominion, as in the United States, we must face the fact that commercialism is the law of the land. The Parks system, it is almost a foregone conclusion, declared by Washington Irving to be the American god, is the obtruding deity. The struggle is between the lower and the higher, the sordid and the ideal.

Speaking for the then president of the United States at the annual opening of the Yellowstone National Park in 1923, Dr. John Wesley Hill said: "Regardless of all facts and figures, arguments, appeals and threats, any park must be of the very nature of its aims and purposes be immediately doomed to failure. Good projects, bad projects, indifferent projects, all must face the same fate, for it is the established policy of the Government that our national parks must and shall forever be maintained in absolute, unimpaired form, not only for the present, but for all time to come. This fixed policy will not be swayed or hair's breadth by any influence, financial, political or otherwise. If rights are granted to one claimant, others must follow, so a precedent must not be established. It would inevitably ruin the entire National Parks system."

Canada can do no less, and if any attempt is made, no matter in what guise, to infringe upon the rights of all the people in their National Parks, they should arise in their might and end any such attempt. The power is now in their hands by virtue of the new National Parks Act.

On Cattle Shipments

Negotiation For Decrease In Transportation Charges On Exports To Britain

Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, is in negotiation with the Atlantic shipping companies and the railways in an effort to obtain a decrease in the transportation charges on cattle exported to Great Britain, which will open up this market to large scale shipments from western Canada.

The negotiations have not proceeded far enough to warrant any forecast of results. Mr. Weir, however, has got to the point where he is advocating an entirely new policy, endeavoring to change the whole basis upon which rates have been imposed in the past.

In regard to the ocean rate, Mr. Weir is endeavoring to have the whole rate basis changed. He wants shipping companies to quote rates by the ton instead of by the head. Such an arrangement would give shippers advantages in shipping stock of various weights. A definite decision in this regard will be reached before long.

For Underwater Safety

Invention Ensures Escape From Submarines At Great Depth

R. H. Davis has perfected an invention which will enable escape from submarines at great depths. The invention consists of a breathing bag which is supplied oxygen by a small cylinder of oxygen fixed below it. Poisonous carbonic acid gas of the exhaled breath is absorbed by a cartridge of soda lime. A special suit containing the breathing apparatus is donned in case of accident under the water. It has been tested at a great depth.

Wanted To Be Polite

A few days ago, a gentleman called what he supposed to be the telephone number of a friend downtown, and asked to speak with him. "I'm sorry," a young lady's voice informed him, "we have no one of that name here." "This," she continued, "is the office of Davis, Polk, Wardwell, Gardiner & Reed." This, it happens, is the name of a prominent law firm. The gentleman may or may not have realized this, but at any rate he was stunned by the lightness of the title. He made the first remark he could think of, "I—I hope they're all well," he ventured, and hung up.

Keep Highway Open In Winter

No. 1 Highway Between Winnipeg and Brandon Must Be Open For Winter Travel

No. 1 highway between Winnipeg and Brandon may be kept open all winter for auto traffic it is stated. To combat the heavy snowfalls that closed the highway early in 1929-30 winter months, the department will probably use two large snow plows of new design, with one of the units stationed at the western end of the highway here and the other working west from Winnipeg. Should the task of keeping the highways not be overly heavy, there is every probability of the Minnedosa-Brandon-Bolshevik route being kept open too.

For some years now there has been an effort to secure snow-fighting units that would work effectively on the highways. The Retail Merchants Association and the Board of Trade co-operated for two winters in a work that kept roads into Brandon from neighboring districts open. Since that time the department has been approached to establish a more permanent force for winter road maintenance and plans are now shaping in that direction. In view of the importance and the amount of traffic over the Winnipeg-Brandon highway this route will get first attention in the new scheme for all-year-round traffic.

For Uniform Text Books

Elimination Of Foreign Produced School Text Books Greatly To Be Desired

Reporting intensive activity in the elimination of foreign produced school text books from the schools of the country, the education committee of the Toronto Chamber of Commerce expressed the opinion that there is an ever growing tendency on the part of both the education authorities and the Canadian public to favor wherever possible, text books edited and published by Canadian and British authors and houses.

From a special committee formed in Alberta, came the suggestion, that since the individual provinces have complete charge of education, the provincial ministers of education could probably participate in a round table conference for the purpose of reviewing the text books situation in Canada and of seeking as much uniformity as possible.

Sat On Top Of World

Few Canadians Had This Experience During Eclipse Of Moon

Men who literally sat on top of the world for a moment are described by Dr. William Z. Fisher of Harvard Observatory in a report just published on the 1927 moon's eclipse.

These men were a far-flung line of fur traders, trappers, missionaries and hunters in Northern Canada, and at the moment of total eclipse their shadows were exactly on top of the round, black shadow of the earth as it slipped over the face of the moon, 240,000 miles distant.

A 100-inch telescope might have shown there the rough outline of the hills around them cast in the upper edge of the shadow on the moon.

Astronomers wanted to know just how much sunlight passed over this top edge of the world horizontally through the earth's surface atmosphere. To figure this they needed weather, cloud and haze conditions along this rim. George A. Wendt, of the Canadian Westinghouse Company, Limited, established the KDKA short wave broadcast to reach the men on the "rim" by radio.

They were advised two months in advance what the astronomers wanted. Radio was the only way to reach them. Months after the eclipse Dr. Fisher received his report, and now after long computations, their astronomical value has proved up. They show that clouds shut out light horizontally across this top of the world to a height of 2,000 meters more than a third of a mile. This cloudy layer was almost as opaque as solid earth, and had few breaks.

Comments Development In Transportation

Visitor To Canada Amazed At Railway Facilities In Dominion

Delighted with what he had already seen of Canada and expressing amazement at the developments which have taken place in transportation facilities in the Dominion, Gordon B. Roepke of "The Examiner" and "The Weekly Courier," of Launceston, Tasmania, left Montreal on the "International Limited" for the Canadian National Railways, for Toronto, en route to Vancouver to sail for home.

Radio and telephone connections to and from moving trains were an amazing development to him, Mr. Roepke stated, while the speed of "The International Limited," six hours for the 344 miles journey between Montreal and Toronto, was one at which he had never anticipated travelling over such a distance on any Canadian railway.

CONFERENCE AT LONDON STUDIES WHEAT QUESTION

London, England.—With the reply of the British Government to the preference proposals of Hon. R. B. Bennett, Prime Minister of Canada, expected soon, the heads of the Imperial Conference settled down to consideration of wheat and other Empire foodstuffs.

The expediency of bulk purchases of wheat and of import boards were considered in a general way and the whole subject was referred to an economic committee, under the president of the board of trade, for consideration.

"It was not just a question of establishing import boards which would buy in the cheapest market, as for instance, purchasing Russian wheat," said one British official recently. "On the contrary, the angle from which the delegates are approaching the problem is how best inter-Empire trade may be improved."

The same economic committee, under the Rt. Hon. Mr. Graham, has been authorized to take steps towards bringing together the British and Dominion manufacturers for a conference.

In considering the wheat problem and, with a wealth of information at its command, the committee could not even make an estimate in answer to the oft-heard question: "How much wheat grain is it likely to increase of the growth of production by the great wheat-producing countries was reviewed."

The arbitration committee, under Hon. Maurice Dupre, Canadian solicitor-general, studied proposed reservations in the general arbitration act prepared at Geneva. Under the main reservation the British nations would not submit their inter-Empire disputes to an international court.

N. Z. Butter Exporters

Are Anxious To Know If New Duty

Vancouver, B.C.—Cables from New Zealand stated that butter exporters there are eager to know if the new rates on butter from that country to Canada, have been fixed. It is true that the fact that information received from London indicated that the old rate would remain until negotiations between Premier Bennett and Premier Forster, now in London, has proceeded further.

It was ascertained from the office of the collector of customs at Vancouver that the new rate of 8 cents preferential rate is now operative. "So far as we are concerned," stated an official, "the old rates expired on October 12, when the extension of the Australian trade agreement was rescinded, the new rates becoming immediately effective thereafter."

Armed Bandits Stop Payroll

Winnipeg, Man.—Armed robbers held up the office staff of the Canada Maltting Company, on William Avenue, and escaped with the payroll, believed to be about $2,400. Two men entered the factory office, ten minutes before the envelopes were to be distributed to employees. Clerks in the office were herded into a large vault while the robbers escaped with the payroll.

Held By Brigands

Peiping, China.—Frank P. Lockhart, United States consul-general, states that Bert N. Nelson, United States missionary of the Lutheran United Mission Home, Minneapolis, is held by brigands. His abductors belong to the so-called first Red Army. They captured him after the fall of Kwangshu, southeast Honan, to their forces on October 5. A large ransom has been demanded.

For a Federal Bank

Winnipeg, Man.—Reduced prices for farmers' necessities, cutting grain freight rates from 18 to 10 cents, and establishment of a federal bank which would make three per cent. loans to farmers were requested in resolutions passed by a meeting of 390 farmers at Valley River, Man. The resolutions have been forwarded to Dominion authorities.

Government Promises Help

Winnipeg, Man.—Government aid to farmers in purchasing bacon-type breeding sows raised by boys' and girls' clubs in Manitoba will be granted by the province, Hon. Albert Prefontaine, Minister of Agriculture states. The government will put up three-quarters of the cost as a loan in an effort to prevent sacrifice of valuable sows.

English Shareholders Angry

Shareholders Of Grand Trunk Stock Have Poor Opinion Of Canadian Politicians

London, England.—In an angry mood, holders of preference shares in the old Canadian Grand Trunk Railway met again to receive the report of their representative, R. C. Hawkin, on his recent visit to Canada. Finally they appointed a committee of seven to interview Premier R. B. Bennett and present their claims.

Hawkin told the claimants that when France had altered a French loan contract, Chancellor Philip Snowden had protested strongly. But Canada had gone much further than France ever did, in altering the Grand Trunk contract made in London and causing the obliteration of 100 per cent. of an investment. Surely this should come within the orbit of the Imperial conference, he said.

One stockholder spoke of a "damnable bad trick" and another said the expression was not strong enough. "If there is a lower form of human life than the Canadian politician, I do not know it," exclaimed a third. "I know Canada, I have met politicians and farmers, and they are downright crooks. The only thing is to boycott goods."

Tells Of Slavery Conditions

Lady Simon Says Liberia Commission

Report Will Reveal Atrocities
London, England.—Lady Simon, wife of Sir John Simon, recently arrived at the forthcoming report of the commission of inquiry into Liberia would show that natives had been shipped overseas from the African coast "under conditions scarcely distinguishable from slave trading and slave raiding."

Lady Simon, addressing the members of the Conservative Women's Reform Association, said that these and other abuses had been committed not only by private persons, but also by Liberia-American negro officials, including those in highest positions.

She contended that these devolved upon the United States Government and to some extent upon the British and French governments responsibility for coming to the aid of the Liberia republic for the total abolition of the system under which abuses exist.

BENNETT SUBMITS PLAN FOR EMPIRE CO-OPERATION

London, England.—"If this opportunity for closer economic relations is not seized it may not come again," declared Prime Minister R. B. Bennett when he spoke by trans-Atlantic broadcast to the citizens of Canada and mentioned the preference proposals which he placed, on behalf of the Dominion Government, before the Imperial Conference.

"I shall not refer to the reception of our proposal as received," said Mr. Bennett. "In the near future it will either be accepted or rejected. We can only await the decision. It will be a momentous one, for I believe, and believing, I consider it my duty to say, that if this opportunity for closer economic relations is not seized it may not come again."

"This, I need not tell you," pursued the Canadian prime minister, "is in no sense intended as a threat. It is rather a prediction which, unhappily, I believe to be true. For we must all have regard for the basic changes in the conditions of world trade and realize that in this age of great industrialization and fierce competition the old rules, which in their time were good rules, may very well now be, if they are followed, high-posts of commercial disaster."

As all the peoples of the Empire just now had their troubles, Mr. Bennett believed it would be the part of wisdom "that we should come together and search out means by which there may be won for all a new and greater prosperity."

The prime minister spoke of the common traditions and principles of justice and fair dealing which bound the British nations together. He spoke of the great resources of Canada and recorded the resolve "to use these wisely, so that the happiness and welfare of the Canadian people may forever endure."

Mr. Bennett noted the will to economic co-operation in the Empire and he thought the Imperial conference would bring forth a plan to promote the prosperity of the whole. He cited the example of France, which, after safeguarding its home markets, was in a better position "to fight the foreign trade and he did not think increasing the Empire market for Empire goods would result in a decrease in the foreign market."

Mr. Bennett spoke of the wealth of Canada's resources. In its prairies, forests, mines, lakes and sea lay incalculable wealth. "It is our resolve also," Premier Bennett said, "to use it wisely, so that the happiness and welfare of the Canadian people may forever endure."

The problem was to determine what scheme of co-operation would be fair and lasting and of real account to all who joined in it. "Any agreement based on sentiment alone," he added, "cannot be a permanent one. If I ask this country to buy our Canadian wheat, which we must and will sell in the highest and most stable market, and give you nothing but thanks in exchange for this service, you would soon tire of it. Similarly, if Canada gave you preference for your goods in her market and got nothing but your acknowledgment of this preference in return, I fear it could not long continue.

"But if there is an agreement inspired by sentiment and buttressed by definite and lasting and mutual advantage, then it will not fail, for it will be our common wish and for the benefit of each and all to support and sustain it. Under that agreement each of us will be working primarily and properly in the interest of our respective countries, and that is the only way in which we may continue to promote the prosperity of the Empire as a whole. We would as an initial step safeguard our home markets, reduce to a minimum unemployment. We would then sell in the foreign markets the excess of our products over home consumption. By increasing the Empire market for our goods we would not, in my opinion, in any way decrease the foreign market, for successful competition is closely related to the question of production, and speaking generally, the greater the production the cheaper is the cost of production."

Accepts New Position

Hon. C. A. Dunning Appointed Vice-President Of Eastern Pleasure Resort

Montreal, Que.—Hon. C. A. Dunning, formerly minister of finance in the Dominion Government, has accepted the position of vice-president and general manager of "Lucerne-Quebec," a new all year pleasure resort and hotel on the Ottawa River, half way between Ottawa and Montreal. The appointment was announced by E. W. Beatty, K.C., president of the organization.

"The directors of Lucerne-Quebec make this announcement with a great deal of satisfaction," Mr. Beatty said.

The Lucerne-Quebec organization recently took over the old Papeau estate overlooking the Ottawa River, and a hotel on the log hotel plan, with numerous individual cottages, are being erected. Summer and winter sports will be among the attractions and the project aims toward the development of a year around residential resort on a club membership plan.

Seek More Cargo Space

Australian Flour Millers Facing Difficult Problem

Melbourne, Australia.—Flour millers of Victoria are facing a difficult problem in getting cargo space for flour shipments to Egypt and Europe. If there is no relief in the present situation it is likely they will charter their own ships. General rationing of cargo space is in full swing, with a shortage for cereals and flour. The reason for lack of space for these cargoes is that vessel owners are receiving plenty of cargoes paying a higher rate.

Carman Shrine Unveiled

Fredericton, N.B.—With leaders in public life in the province and Dominion taking part in the simple but impressive ceremony, the unveiling of the granite shrine to Elias Carman, first memorial to the dead post, took place here in his native city on Saturday afternoon, October 18.

The family shrine to Elias Carman, a native of Fredericton, N.B., was unveiled in a concrete vault with state recognition in August, 1929, was the scene of the ceremony.

NEW TOWNSITE FOR CHURCHILL IS NOW POSSIBLE

Winnipeg, Man.—Settlement of the town of Churchill, Manitoba's seaport on Hudson Bay, will not be possible next spring as expected, according to a statement by Charles H. Attwood, deputy minister of Mines and natural resources. Water conditions on the filled-in area, where it was planned to build the business section, have created a serious engineering problem.

Location of the townsite may be altered, it is stated, and until the engineering difficulty has been obviated date for the site-opening cannot be set. Permanently frozen subsoil at the Bay port offers difficulties hitherto unencountered in municipal development, it is pointed out.

"The Dominion Government is busily engaged in building port facilities, railway terminals and, in transferring to the province the portion of Churchill townsite not required for the dock and railway facilities, agreed to fill with gravel and sand the lower-lying flats between the railway and the higher escarpment to the east," said Mr. Attwood.

The Dominion has fulfilled its agreement and in that part of the townsite selected as the business centre has already deposited some 40,000 yards of gravel with the object of preparing a site suitable for the business section of the town.

"During the summer plans for the townsite were prepared and recently the provincial government engineers have completed staking out this portion of the townsite, but in so doing they now report that water conditions are such that make the filled-in area unsuitable as a townsite until such time as some methods or means are devised to provide proper drainage in the perpetually frozen subsoil, through which there is no seepage."

"Until such time as further studies and investigations can be made to solve the problem peculiar to Port Churchill and to provide municipal utilities and services in the town, the province considers the interests of the public are best met by delaying the opening up of the townsite until these problems are solved."

IS OPTIMISTIC OVER FUTURE OF WORLD TRADE

London, England.—Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden, Laborite Chancellor of the Exchequer and avowed free trader, expressed at a banquet a feeling of optimism about the future of world trade in general and British trade in particular.

Despite the heavy burden of unemployment, which he said, was costing the nation about $500,000,000 annually, he prophesied a better conclusion for the financial year than had been predicted. He asked parliament to deal with the cost of unemployment by putting "the insurance fund upon an insurance basis."

Mr. Snowden addressed a banquet at which there were present the governor and the directors of the Bank of England and leading bankers and merchants of the city of London.

"I look forward to the time, which I am quite confident will come, when not only the magnitude of the trade of this country but the magnitude of the trade of the world, will be of a volume which we are not able to conceive today."

Deprecating the spirit of pessimism in Britain, the chancellor said that it was a different spirit that triumphed in the past over difficulties as great as those with which the country is faced today.

"A hundred years ago things were quite as bad, or worse, as they are today. But things changed, and the next eighty years marked the greatest period of prosperity and the greatest advance in the history of this country."

"Times will change again. Undoubtedly we are now suffering less than some of the other great industrial countries of the world. During the past six months we have maintained a larger proportion of our production than Germany or the United States."

The cost of unemployment to the nation, Mr. Snowden said, was disturbing him almost beyond measure. He estimated from various sources the cost of unemployment at $100,000,000, $200,000,000, $300,000,000, $400,000,000, $500,000,000, $600,000,000, $700,000,000, $800,000,000, $900,000,000, ## WHOM DO YOU PURCHASE FROM?

The Journal for several weeks has been giving a column in the interest of home buying. Recently we discovered an instance of a printing order being given to a Toronto firm which might have been handled through the Journal office. Multiply the amount of the cost of this order 15 or 20 times and there would have been sufficient work in it to have given a local printer three or four months work. This local printer in turn would be buying from local stores, consuming his share of things to eat, and the printing office would have been using heat, light and power to produce the work. The money would have circulated several times over in local channels. Instead it went away at one fell swoop and no local tradesmen received any benefit. No part of it went to pay local taxes.

Even the parties who purchased the goods would have received some of it back in local trade had it been spent locally. The incident is pointed out to show how the community loses by purchasing from distant cities printing which could be bought at home. You cannot deprive people of earning a living and at the same time expect them to purchase the goods others may have to sell.

The quickest way to send your horse town to the "bow-wow" is to send away the money you earn locally to purchase goods from the cities. It reminds one of trying to keep a horse to haul the wagon and slowly starving him to death by not feeding him oats.—The Coleman Journal.

CANADIAN FARM
WOMAN AT GENEVA

One of the most interesting personalities who attended the recent meeting of the Council of the League of Nations at Geneva, Switzerland, was Hon. Irene Parby, of Alia, Alberta, minister without portfolio in the Alberta Government. Mrs. Parby was a member of the Canadian legation headed by Sir Robert L. Jordan, former prime minister of Canada. She was born in London, England, and her father was a colonel in the British Army. At the age of twenty-eight she came to Alberta to visit friends on a ranch. While here she met W. C. Parby, an Englishman, graduate of Oxford University, and was married to him in 1897. They began farming and since then Mrs. Parby has been one of the most active workers in the interests of women in Alberta. Nine years ago she was elected to the Alberta Legislature on the United Farmers of Alberta platform and since then has been a member of the Cabinet.—Ex.

INSTITUTE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The increasing use being made of the Public Library this fall gives great deal of satisfaction to the Library board. It would seem that the town is gradually waking up to two important facts, first that Blairmore has a first-class library, with more than 2300 volumes, including all classes of literature from mining to fiction and from philosophy to golf; second that this is a Public Library in the fullest sense. It is not connected with any church or organization. It is controlled by a board of six representative men, whose one object is to make the library useful to everyone and to encourage everyone to use of it. The hours are: Tuesdays and Saturdays, from 7 to 9 p.m.

A grand armistice ball, under the joint auspices of Crow's Nest Chapter, I.O.O.F., and the Blairmore Branch of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., will take place in the opera house on the night of Monday, November the 10th.

They're Not Flappers
"Dark and stormy night and the old engine was coming down, the grade whistling, puffing and flapping its ears," remarked Val.
"Hold on," says Pete McPherson, "an engine hasn't ears."
Val: "Certainly it has—engines."

Many ardent duck hunters were amply rewarded through waiting along the local river for several days during the week. Lakes in the district being frozen over caused the migratory birds to resort to the open waters, the streams only.

Once again, William Bennett, of the J. A. McEachern Ranching Company, Burmis, has won the grand championship at the Calgary stockyards.

The Brewing Industry is an important factor in the industrial life of this Province.

It is hardly necessary to emphasize the millions of dollars which have been invested throughout Alberta in this industry.

Hundreds of Albertans enjoy steady employment throughout the year in the brewing, storing, transporting, of the products of the five great modern breweries of Alberta.

Alberta Brewery Products are served by the bottle or glass at hotels. Sold by the barrel or case from our warehouses.	Where beer by the glass is available, most men are satisfied to forego the full bottle of more potent liquor.

DEATH OF GEORGE GAZZOWSKI

The report that George Gazzowski had died suddenly of heart trouble at Saunders at an early hour on Monday morning came as a distinct shock to his many friends in this district.

Mr. Gazzowski was for a number of years associated with the West Canadian Collieries Limited here, and later represented the company as sales agent at Winnipeg and other points. But a few years ago he married Miss Agnes Lecerf, at the time stenographer in the company's local office, taking up residence at Calgary, later moving to Saunders.

He is survived by his young wife and daughter, residing at Saunders. The remains will be laid to rest at Red Deer today, a number of officials of the coal company and friends from Blairmore and Bellevue attending the funeral.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

George Ritson, of Lethbridge, spent several days in the district recently.

The auction sale, which took place at the James Gerry ranch on Friday, was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L'ittleton, who spent the summer at the Hawk's Nest, near Waterton Park, have returned home.

Mrs. Turner, of Calgary, returned home on Saturday's train after paying a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brockwell.

On Friday night, Harry Carney had the misfortune of losing four hundred and fifty bushels of wheat and a lot of baled straw and a home, which was destroyed by fire. The grain was in the house, located on the Pincher Creek road one-half mile south of town, with the baled hay near by, all of which went up in flames together. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Under Control or No Control?

UNDER CONTROL with beer being sold by reputable licensed hotels under government supervision.

NO CONTROL with bootleggers running rampant as in the old prohibition days

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD NOT SIGN THE PROHIBITION PETITION URGING THE GOVERNMENT TO ABOLISH THE SALE OF BEER BY THE GLASS OR BOTTLE, THUS DOING AWAY WITH THE BEER ROOMS, CLUBS AND CANTEENS.

1. The proposal to disturb the act comes from a small body of people whose social theories have not withstood the test of actual experience.
2. The Trades and Labor Congress are on record as being in favor of the sale of beer-by-the-glass.
3. By virtue of the local option provisions of the act, communities may extinguish a license when a majority of public opinion so expresses itself.
4. No license has been withdrawn as a result of a local option vote either in 1929 or 1930, though licenses attacked were at points where conditions appeared to the prohibitionists, as favorable to a dry result.
5. In a total of 58 local option votes taken since the act came into force only four licenses have been cancelled as a result of votes; and these licenses were, in every case, adversely affected by peculiar local influence.
6. Absence of criticism at the last two provincial elections.
7. Hotel accommodation, particularly at country points, has improved as a direct result of the act, to a standard unequalled in any other province.
8. The general endorsement of the act by the travelling public and the willingness of the public generally to assist in enforcing the act by giving information regarding infractions and interdicting those needing protection from their own weakness.
9. Bootlegging and moonshining have been eliminated as remunerative pursuits. This, together with strict government control, has placed all intoxicating liquor beyond the reach of minors; fewer cases of intoxication in the police courts, in spite of a considerable increase in population. Leave the police of the province free to perform their natural functions, that of protecting the people, not taking up their time trying to enforce what has proved to be unenforceable legislation. Remember you cannot legislate men's minds, because they will never obey a law they do not respect. This was proven in prohibition days.
10. The operation of the act provides a large public revenue (4½ cents of every 10 cent expended) this has helped to increase the general revenue of the province and prevent increased taxation. Formerly such revenue went to the bootleggers and moonshiners.
11. Official reports commend the act as eminently practical. They contain no important criticism of the act's clauses. Police reports indicate a continuous improvement in the general state of law and order.
12. The real motive prompting the petition is to render the act unworkable by eliminating the retail sale of beer-by-the-glass or bottle; the ultimate aim being a return to total prohibition.

IF THE BEER ROOMS AND CLUBS ARE ABOLISHED WHAT DOES THE PROHIBITION PARTY SUGGEST TO TAKE THEIR PLACE? IS IT TO BE LIQUOR FOR THE WEALTHY AND PROHIBITION FOR THE WORKER?

O. BRINDLEY INJURED

A very serious accident happened to Oscar Brindley on Tuesday afternoon on the M.F. & H. train to Coal Creek.

Mr. Brindley stepped out of the coach and as the platform was slippery and with the lurching of the train, he slipped between the coaches and fell under the train, the wheels running over his leg and crushing it badly.

None of the train crew or passengers saw the accident and Mr. Brindley was not missed until the train reached Coal Creek. Having frequently travelled up to the Creek, the crew thought he had probably dropped off at Welsh camp as he often did and were not alarmed at not finding him on the train on its arrival. However, they decided to keep a lookout as the train was returning at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Brindley, in the meantime, managed to crawl off the track and had the presence of mind to use first aid on himself. He made a tourniquet out of his scarf and tied it above the knee, thus stopping the loss of blood to a certain extent and probably saving his life.

Wm. Thomson was the first on the train to see him lying beside the track. He was picked up and brought to the Fernie hospital, where his leg was amputated a few inches below the knee by Dr. Geo. Kelman, the bones being so badly crushed that to save the foot and leg was impossible.

Mr. Brindley had just a few days before returned to Fernie, having been in Texas where he was taking a course in aviation.

At the time of going to press, Mr. Brindley was doing as well as could possibly be expected.

Mrs. Scott, mother of Mr. W. W. Scott, passed away at a ripe old age in Edmonton last week end.

Work on the steel superstructure of the new traffic bridge across the Saskatchewan River at Broseau, Alberta, which is being built by the Department of Public Works, has begun. The bridge is the largest that the department has built in several years, and will be one of the largest in the province, running to something over a thousand feet in length.

DO YOU

SUFFER FROM CONSTIPATION?

Countless remedies are advertised for constipation. Many relieve the moment but they are habit forming and must be continued. Others contain alcohol and dangerous mineral drugs, which remain in the system, settle in the joints and cause aches and pains. Some are harsh purgatives which cramp and grip and leave a depressed after effect. Avoid lubricating oils which only grease the intestines and encourage nature's machinery to become lazy.

A purely vegetable laxative such as Carter's Little Liver Pills, gently touches the liver, bile starts to flow, the bowels move gently, the intestines are thoroughly cleansed and constipation poisons pass away. The stomach, liver and bowels are now active and the system enjoys a real tonic effect. All druggists 25c and 75c red packages.

Advertising Is Good Business

And Is Especially Necessary In Times Of Depression

It is a curious fact that the art of advertising at home is on as high a plane as in any country in the world—but manufacturers and merchants do not seem to have developed the faculty of showing the rest of the world how really good their products are. British traders are inclined, when bad times prevail, to reduce costs by cutting down advertising, a procedure which has been proved time and again to be against all the principles of good business.

As was mentioned in a recent article contributed to our columns by a local advertising specialist: "Among experienced advertisers today, it has become an established policy to redouble efforts in bad times, because of the actual results which have been derived in so many instances from the adoption of this policy."—Hong Kong Press.

PRETTYLY DRAPE

All Tingey models are created and sketched in Paris and the patterns are made in New York.

Diligent draping effects mark many of the new bodies and skirt effects, giving almost Greek grace to the vaginal dresses.

The model illustrated for today's pattern has a new and charming collar. It forms a pretty drape on one side and is caught with a modern brooch or a button, preferably a jeweled one if the material is rich like satin, crepe-de-chine, narocline, chiffon velvet, etc. The model would also cut charmingly in a faconne velvet of which some lovely new designs are to be seen.

To be in keeping with the bodice trim, the skirt drapes pretty on one side where the weight of the fullness of stuff just causes the merest dip at the point. The belt is narrow and of self tissue.

This pattern may be obtained in sizes 14 to 20 and 34 to 42. It is ready for immediate delivery. It is hand cut.

Send 25 cents (in stamp or coin) to Fashion Bureau. Write carefully and plainly your name and full address, the number of the pattern and the size you want.

Should Check Up Unemployed

Some May Not Be Deserving Of Government Relief

Unemployment figures in urban centres are augmented each winter through the migration of men who work steadily on farms in the summer and rather than accept a smaller wage for the winter months or perhaps merely comfortable board they journeyed cityward in the hope of sharing in the jobs handed out by benevolent city councils. Urban municipalities should keep a close check on these migrants and refuse to increase the burden upon their municipalities and the country at large by maintaining these men in semi-idleness for five months out of the year.

It will be grossly unfair to taxpayers everywhere if part of the twenty million dollars appropriated by the Dominion Government and the thousands of dollars that are added to it by the provinces and municipalities is used to maintain the migratory class of laborer who has been offered winter employment and turns it down in order to share in the millions voted for unemployment relief.—Farmer's Advocate.

Advocates Clothing Reform

College Professor Thinks Men Should Wear Dresses

Men should wear dresses, Prof. Albert Bachem, of the University of Illinois College of Medicine, advises. For health and comfort the ideal garment for men would be loose and flowing, without binding collar or belt, he told the American Physician Therapy Association recently.

"We men, under our garments," he said, "are practically always living in a tropical climate. Women's clothing is much more reasonable.

"There are two ways I would suggest to improve our clothing. Either it could be made more porous and consist, possibly of one layer, or it could be worn very loosely."

Yukon Big Game

Yukon Territory, Canada, is the paradise of big game hunters and no place on the North American continent today offers greater inducements both for the variety of big game and for the dimensions of the trophies to be secured. Mountain sheep, moose, goat, caribou, and bear are numerous. The moose are of the "giant" species, and bear includes black, brown and grizzly.

OCTOBER 26

WORLD'S TEMPERANCE SUNDAY
—SPIRITUAL WORKS IN A WORLD WAR

Golden Text: "Every man that stablisheth in the games earthly self-control in all things."—Corinthians 9:25.

Lesson: Galatians 5:13-26.
Devotional Reading: Romans 14:13-21.

Explanations and Comments
Christians, Galatians, verse 13—"Brethren, you are free from the Law, but Christian freedom does not mean that you can do as you please." Liberty and license are not synonymous. Do not use your freedom as a license for indulging your lower impulses, but serve one another in love. "Flesh" is used here for "that element of man's nature which is opposed to goodness and makes for evil. It signifies the entire potency of sin."

The Christian Love, verses 14, 15. Through loving service for others, you fulfill the whole divine law, which is, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Paul here quotes Leviticus 19:18. Then, recalling the fact that the Galatians were prone to quarrel, Paul adds, "But if ye hate and devour one another (as toward one another like dogs or wild beasts), beware lest you destroy one another."

Antagonistic Spirits, verses 16-18. Submit to the guidance of the Holy Spirit in all your acts. Paul counsels, and then you will not fulfill the desire of your evil nature, for the evil nature, however, are two hostile forces. The Spirit strives to prevent your obeying your evil nature, and you from obeying the Spirit, for they are at warfare one with the other.

Paul's theory seems to be this: Man's glory lies in his will. In the, however, are two hostile forces. The flesh seeks ascendancy, urging him to choose the things he likes. The Spirit urges him to unite himself with God and things divine, to use his free will for his life according to spiritual motives.

The Final Counsel, verses 25, 26—"If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us walk. Walking by the Spirit is the effect of living by the Spirit. If the Divine Spirit has control of our spirit, then we are living righteously."

Less Crime In Britain

Several Prisons Are Closed For Lack Of Occupants

Crime in Great Britain has deteriorated so much that prisons are operating far below capacity, and several have actually closed for lack of occupants, states Dr. Higgins, medical officer of the prison in Liverpool, who arrived in New York recently. He attributed the decrease in crime to the system of swift justice, strict laws, requiring the closing of saloons at certain hours, and to the fact that a prisoner or a person fined for an offence is kept under close surveillance after his release or payment of the fine.

There was great excitement aboard the liner.

"Man overboard!" was the cry. "Gentlemen overboard, if you please," said Mrs. De Snobbs. "That's my husband."

Finds Use For Muskog

May Establish Industry To Produce Insulating Material

An American company with headquarters at Minneapolis, is investigating commercial uses for the northern muskogs with a view of establishing an industry to produce insulating material. While the prospect of using muskogs as an insulating material is something new to the majority of citizens of Canada, it is an old trick of the veteran prospectors in this area.

But hundreds of log cabins of trappers and prospectors in the northern areas of Manitoba and Saskatchewan have been packed with the bog material for years, keeping by itself some 3,000 varieties of the muskogs, and the freezing blasts of the northern winds and the burning sun of northern Manitoba to the entire satisfaction of the owner of the cabin.

No local information can be obtained regarding the investigations by the American firm of the industrial use of muskogs, but early in the spring a substantial shipment of the muskogs left here for the south.

Started In Small Way

The dahlia began its spectacular career most modestly in 1779 when a few seeds were sent from Mexico to England, by which time 3,000 varieties had sprung from this little packet of seeds (not bulbs—"a truly remarkable example," says Dr. Howe "of a plant's capacity for variation when aided by man." Today more than 8,000 varieties are in cultivation, thousands have been discarded and there is a dahlia society in every state.

Great Secrecy Surrounds Destination Of British Woman Aviator

Mrs. Victor Bruce, British woman aviator, has started from Heston, Middlesex, air park, on a mystery flight in her single-seater Bluebird aeroplane.

The greatest secrecy surrounded her destination. One report credited her with the intention of flying east across Europe to Persia, India, China, and Japan. Another said that she was flying to Alexandria and then down to Cape Town.

There was still another report that said she was flying around the world and would be gone three years.

When coffee was introduced into Europe as a novelty, it was said to be an effective remedy against hysteria and toothache.

Too much

Many people, two hours after eating, suffer indigestion as they call it. It is usually excess acid. Correct it with an alkali. The best way, the quick, harmless and efficient way, is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained for 50 years the standard with physicians. One spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in stomach acids, and at once. The symptoms, such as headaches, gas, heartburn, etc., will disappear in five minutes.

You will never use crude methods when you know this better medicine. And you will never suffer from excess acid when you prove out this easy relief. Please do that—for your own sake—now.

Be sure to get the genuine, prescribed by a good friend of mine. This is a liquid; it cannot be made in tablet form. Look for the name Phillips' and the word genuine in red.

CHAPTER II.—Continued.

Considering all it meant it was over in an incredibly few minutes, but during the entire time Gay did not look at Nick. She looked at Lincoln, not alone because his familiar visage steadied her, but because if she kept her eyes upon him she couldn't see Josiah K. Miller's beard.

Somehow she found herself shaking hands with the owner of the beard, and nodding dazedly to the clerk and the stenographer. Somehow, with the help of Nick's firm hand, she got down the dark stairway, and into the blinding sunshine of the spring day.

Still she didn't meet Nick's eyes. The whole performance had been a nightmare—a hideous travesty of sacred things. She was hurt and quivering. She glanced down at the gold band on her fourth finger—wondered vaguely where Nick had put it, and realized at its sight that she was married—married without the touch of her husband's lips. The thought that not once during the whole day had Nick been anything but brotherly, suddenly scorched her. Surely, had he loved her ever so little, he would have kissed her! And to let her be married in that dreadful place—

Gay didn't know that her quick breathing was almost audible. She hardly knew that they were in the car again and had left the highway for a secluded street. She didn't notice that the car had stopped; but she heard Nick say, a trifle hoarsely: "Gay—darling—I'd love you."

And just then a voice broke in upon them: a high shrill, old-man voice: "By gorry! if ain't Nick Hastings!" They both started, to behold a little man in baggy trousers and a wide-brimmed hat. He was carrying a huge umbrella, and he looked at Gay like a character from Dickens; but Nick,

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT—

CHILDREN hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. And this pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes; just as bland and just as harmless as the ripest red.

When Baby's cry warns of colic, a few drops of Castoria has him soothed, asleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more valuable in diarrhea. When coated tongue or bad breath tell of constipation, invoke its gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels. In colds or children's diseases, you should use it to keep the system from clogging.

Castoria is sold in every drugstore; the genuine always bears Chas. H. Fletcher's signature.

had that wore his ring, slipping it beneath his own upon the steering wheel; and the act brought Gay a sense of security and well-being.

But they were children again when they explored the cabin. Nick declared that it was even more delightful than he remembered it; and insisted, with an ardent glance that brought color to Gay's cheeks, that the added charm was due to present circumstances.

"It's perfect," she agreed.

"They had finished their supper and stood together in the doorway, looking down through the places that guarded their hearthstone, to where green woodlands bordered on greener meadows—where quiet lakes gleamed dully in the twilight, and mountains, blue and majestic, were silhouetted against the sky. The silence deepened. A star shone out—and then another."

"A grey drew a tremulous breath."

"I feel—like a bird in its nest."

Nick's arm went round her shoulders, drawing her closer.

"A bird in its nest," he echoed.

"Well—!" He dropped the protecting arm, and faced her suddenly. "Gay—"

"What have you thought of me all day?"

It came to me that in that abandoned office, when—when you wouldn't look at me, that I hadn't behaved the way I should have. I suppose I was teasing myself a little. I didn't realize that I was teasing you as well.

Do you remember when we were kids, Gay, and my mother'd sometimes take us on a picnic, how I always saved the choicest morsels for the last? I think, dear, it was that quality in my make-up, which kept me from kissing you today when I was tempted. I thought: 'I'll wait. Our first kiss shall be part of our wedding ceremony.' 'Ceremony! In that horrible place! Oh, Gay, don't you know that it hurts me as much as ever it hurt you? I thought: 'If only she'll look into my eyes I'll make her understand.' But you didn't look, dear—and of course I couldn't kiss you there! And when we got outside it was hard to speak. I was scared, honestly, scared of what you must be thinking—Gay—dearest—let's forget it, and—"

"Forget—our wedding?"

"Yes, if you call that miserable affair a wedding. I don't, think it takes something more than a slovenly Justice of the Peace, and the signatures of a gum-chewing girl and a vulgar little clerk, to make a marriage. God's a good enough witness for me, Gay, and I promise you now that I'll love you—and honour you—and be true to you, dear, until death us do part."

His eyes met hers in a long and steady look.

Mutely, she stretched out her hands, and holding them in a warm clasp against his heart, Nick kissed her.

CHAPTER III.

A week later they were on their way, though strangely, it was Nick who protested at a change when Gay suggested that they had accepted Mr. Bartlett's hospitality long enough. She was seated on the ground beneath a pine tree, while the boy lay at her feet, idly running the brown needles through his fingers.

"But I could stay here forever!" he exclaimed, and his regret at leaving "the Bird's Nest" as Gay had christened their first stopping place among the trees, was so apparent that the girl smiled.

"Forever?" she queried. "And what's to become of the ends of the earth, you were meaning?"

He straightened up, looking at her with what she secretly called his "new look"—not the comrade-like had grown up with, but something deeper.

"It sounds rather far away—the ends of the earth," he admitted. "I won't say that it doesn't call me, but in the last week I've discovered qualities I didn't know I possessed. Perhaps I'm becoming tamed! If I had the sense to discover you before, Gay, we'd be living contentedly in my late uncle's house on Elm Street, and you'd be kissing me good-bye each morning at eight-fifteen, when I started for the bank."

Holds Unusual Degree

Canadian Girl Is Master Of Science

Miss Elizabeth Gregory MacGill of Vancouver, can now write the letters M.S.E. after her name besides the more familiar B.A., and B.Sc., for she graduated not long ago from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, with the degree of master of science in aeronautical engineering.

When Miss MacGill entered the graduate school of Michigan, she already had the degree of bachelor of science from the University of British Columbia, and another degree in engineering from the University of Toronto.

Toronto fellow graduates will recall her as the only girl student at the school of practical science and engineering graduated in engineering, a specially small ring had to be made for her finger, as none of the regulation pattern were of any use in this emergency. It was Miss MacGill's intention to be an electrical engineer, but this young British Columbian turned to aeronautics.

Professor Felix Pawlowski, who holds the chair in aeronautical engineering in the University of Michigan, says that during her course at Ann Arbor, Miss MacGill displayed not only admirable qualities of character, but also "rather an unusual ability for engineering in general." Her work was of such high standing, and she was so generally appreciated by her professors, that in spite of the fact that her health broke down a month before the end of her scholastic year, she was assigned to her, "over and over, she was satisfied that she receive the degree."

Miss MacGill is particularly interested in design of aeroplanes, having already had a certain amount of experience in this direction which she acquired before going to Ann Arbor, and she is planning to continue this line of work with the aeronautical industries as soon as her health permits renewed activities.

The most interesting fact in connection with the brilliant Canadian girl is that she is the first woman on the Canadian list to hold a degree in aeronautical engineering, "and very likely," says Professor Pawlowski, "the only one in the world at the present time." According to my knowledge, the professor adds, there are only two women with proper theoretical training in Europe—one in England and the other in Poland—engaged in aero-dynamic research of rather mathematical character. These two women, however, have no degrees in aeronautical engineering.

Innovation On Limer

Passengers Can Talk Direct To Europe Or America

Direct conversation by wireless telephony from passengers' besides to Europe or to the North American continent whilst on route will be one of the principal features of the "Empress of Britain," gigantic Canadian liner to be completed June, 1931, according to W. H. Annable, assistant steamship passenger traffic manager, Canadian Pacific Railway.

It is expected that the 42,000-ton giantess will occupy only five days on the regular Southampton-Quebec run, and is scheduled for a cruise of the world next year.

The pen of Barred Plymouth Rocks entered by Mrs. W. J. Thompson, of Birch Hill, Saskatchewan, continues to lead in the 11th annual Egg Laying Contest at the Dominion Experimental Farm in Ottawa, with a score of 1,770.1 points. The pen lead is now 46.9 points ahead of the nearest competitor, with only a few points separating the second and third.

City Of Calgary Experimenting With Bituminous Sands

An experiment with bituminous sands from the Fort McMurray district in Northern Alberta was being tried in the city of Calgary public works, it was stated recently by Commissioner A. G. Graves, following a visit from a representative of the company which is exploiting the sands.

About 30 tons had been ordered, he said, and some of it was already in use for crossings, sidewalks, and so forth. It had been found necessary to mix it with sand and gravel according to a formulae developed by city chemists, but even with the added labor of mixing the product was very economical for the use to which it had been put. Commissioner Graves was not prepared to say anything just yet about the lasting qualities of the material, but said that it appeared to be giving satisfaction. Further experiments would have to be made before it was decided to extend the use of it to roads.

NO MEDICINE LIKE BABY'S OWN TABLETS

For Either the Newborn Babe Or the Growing Child

There is no other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets for little ones, whether it be for the newborn babe or the growing child the Tablets always do good. They are absolutely free from opiates or other harmful drugs and the mother can always feel safe in using them.

Concerning the Tablets, Mrs. John Amos, R.R. 1, South Monaghan, Ont., says: "We have three fine, healthy children, to whom when a medicine is needed, we have given only Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are the best medicine you can keep in the house—where there are young children."

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the stomach and bowels; banish colic, indigestion and break up colds and fever and make teething easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or direct by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Riot Caused By Umbrellas

Indian Low Castes Carried Them For Days

A job lot of western umbrellas and shoes caused a riot on the Laccadive Islands, 150 miles off the Malabar coast. The Koyas, or aristocracy of the islands, long ago decreed that they alone might go about and carry umbrellas but when the western shipment came in the Malabars, or sailor caste, added the Melachers, who pick coconuts, decided to try dressing up. They picked 11 Melachers and nine Malabars to defy the old edict and it was a gala day for the strutting low castes until the Koyas' chief heard about it and ordered on his spearmen. After the fight the mannequins found themselves in jail.

Minard's Liniment has a hundred uses.

There weren't so many complaints about hard times when a man didn't consider it a disgrace to go around with a patch on his pants.

Isn't it foolish to suffer any needless pain? It may be only a simple headache, or it may be neuralgia or neuritis. Rheumatism. Lumbago. Aspirin is still the sure thing to take. ## DEPRESSION

"I'm a different woman"

"Two years ago I began to get depressed, and everything was too much trouble for me. I was a misery to myself and everyone around me. I was advised to take Glauber Salts by my friends who said it was the same as the one I had taken when I was a child. I bought a bottle of Glauber Salts and no one would realize the different woman I have been taking Glauber Salts constantly for two years. My daughter as well as myself has found its worth as she feels a different woman."

(Mrs. G. A. K.)
The commonest cause of depression is partial constipation—an insidious complaint because the sufferer is seldom aware of it. It means the gradual accumulation of body poisons, which dull the mind, damp the spirit, sap the nervous strength and lower the vitality. It is a condition which is impossible to ignore. If you keep to Glauber Salts you need never know the meaning of melancholy; never feel "nervy" or depressed.

So the work that's nearest.
Though it's dull at times.
Helping when we meet them.
Lame dogs wait still.

—Charles Kingsley.

Few are needed to do the out-of-the-way tasks which startle the world, and one may be most useful just doing common-place duties, and leaving the issue with God. And when it is all over, and our feet will run no more, and our hands are helpless, and we have scarcely strength to murmur a last prayer, then we shall see that instead of needing a larger field we have left untilled many corners of our single acre, and that none of it is fit for our Master's eye were it not for the softening shadow of the Cross.—George Macdonald.

An Oil Of Merit.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is not a jumble of medicinal substances thrown together and pushed by advertising, but the result of the careful investigation of the healing qualities of certain oils as applied to the human body. It is a rare combination and it won and kept public favor from the first. A trial of it will cause a nation to any who doubt its power to repair and heal.

Up-Keep Is Expensive

Costs More To Run New York City Than Canada

The 1931 budget of New York City will amount to a new high record of at least $632,400,000, a survey of New York's expenses, past, present and future, indicates.

This would amount to $67,630,272 more than the budget for the current year and would be the greatest increase in the history of any city anywhere.

The entire governmental expense for the Dominion of Canada in 1929 was about $281,400,000 in round figures, below the city budget that is expected in 1931.
